Raiders Beat Staunton River 73-64

The Appomattox Raiders got by a shaky start and had a big second quarter and went on to beat the Staunton River Golden Eagles 73-64 last Tuesday night in a Seminole District basketball game played at Staunton River. The win gives the Raiders a 5-0 mark overall and 4-0 in the district.

Staunton River got off to a 13-12 lead in the first quarter, but a 25 point second quarter for the Raiders gave them a 40-28 halftime lead. Appomattox made it 59-42 after three quarters and the reserves saw a lot of action then.

The Raiders controlled the rebounds as they pulled down 45 to 24 for the Golden Eagles and the Raiders shot a hot 48% from the floor to a not so bad 44% for Staunton River.

Bobby Layne led the Raiders in scoring with 18 points and played a good defensive game also. He was followed by Leon Robinson with 14 points and also 14 rebounds and Kenneth Gafford had 11 to round out the double figure men for Appomattox.

Ricky Morgan led the Golden Eagles and was also game top scorer with 23 points. He was closely followed by Dave Nichols with 22 and Calvin Holdren with 10.

Dennis Totty proved to be one of the top rebounders for the Raiders in helping them control the boards. In the shooting, both Robinson and Layne shot over 50% from the floor.

The Raiders had 15 turnovers while the Golden Eagles had 12.

The Raiders will play December the 28th and 29th in a Christmas Tournament in Roanoke at 8 p.m.

HEARING PROBLEMS?

Because the first step toward obtaining help for a hearing impairment usually is to have a hearing test, each community should insure each citizen has the opportunity to obtain a convenient, economical annual hearing test.

Junior FHA Chapter Entertains

The Appomattox Junior Chapter Future Homemakers of America held an open house for the faculty and administration after school on Tuesday afternoon, December 19th, 1972, in the Home Economics Department at the Appomattox Intermediate School. They enjoyed refreshments served (from left to right) Gloris Hamlett, Evelyn Franklin, Susan Rosser, Mary Lewis, Carolyn Grisham and Teresa Cyrus, assisted by all 8th graders under the instruction of Mrs. Lucy Green.

After the refreshments were served, guests were given an opportunity to admire the assortment of Christmas decorations that had been made by all 9th grade girls under the supervision of Mrs. Velma Elliott.

The Home Economics building was brightly arrayed with colorful bulletin boards, doors and tables. All in all it was a festive occasion.

A FABLE

And it came to pass that two young fleas fell in love, and after a short courtship, married and settled down. They found a large, good-natured and inactive dog for a home.

Theirs was truly an ideal life. Food, shelter and heat were provided. There was a housing unit were provided. There was a housing unit in every wrinkle. Life was sweet and easy. All they did was eat, sleep and multiply.

Freedom from want and fear had been attained, and they and their offspring enjoyed the abundant life.

But the patient old dog, sore and unappreciated, grew weak and weary. Unable any longer to support the hungry and rapidly multiplying, non-productive population, he finally staggered off into the woods and died.

Consternation reigned among the fleas. They had meetings protesting that the economic system had let them down. Some even threatened to vote for the other party. There was talk of suing the old dog for lack of cooperation.

Many of those panicky parasites perished on the spot. Others, bitter in spirit, trudged off into the cruel world and died by the roadside, trying to thumb a ride on another dog. None thought of shifting for themselves.

Now the moral of this little story is that if too many people depend on society, industry or government to look after them, to provide them with security they may end in want and distress amid the wreckage of a nation.

Men must never forget that there is no substitute for self-reliance, individual striving and thrift to provide for their future needs.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 13, December 24-30
Subject: Beyond The Advent
Scripture Text: "Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. 2 Peter 3:13. Fellow pilgrim we are still amid the shadows and turmoil of earthly activities; but soon our Saviour is to appear to bring deliverance and rest. Let us by faith behold the blessed hereafter as pictured by the hand of God. He who died for the sins of the world is opening the gates of Paradise to all who belive on Him. Soon the battle will have been fought, the victory won. Soon we shall see Him in whom our hopes of eternal life are centered . . . Look up, look up, and let your faith continually increase. Let this faith guide you along the narrow path that leads through the gates of the city into the great beyond, the wide, unbounded future of glory that is for the redeemed . . . "The nations of the saved will know no other law than the law of heaven. All will be a happy, united family - clothed with the garments of praise and thanksgiving. Over the scene the morning stars will sing together, and the sons of God will shout for joy, while God and Christ will unite in proclaiming. There will be no more sin, neither shall there be any death." Prophets and Kings pages 731-733.

Lesson Outline - Part 1. God's original Purpose Isa. 45: 18,43:7. "For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; He hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the Lord; and there is none else." "Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory. I have formed him; yea, I have made him. A careful analysis of Genesis 1 as to God's acts can lead to a fuller understanding of the expression "the image of God." Part. 2. A New World Promised. Dan. 7:18; Matt. 5:5. These two designations are used to indicate those who will possess God's Kingdom". But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even for ever and ever." Part 3. Beyond Human Imagination. 1 Cor. 2:9; 2 Cor. 4:17,18. Please read these chapters. "Paul had a view of heaven, the best thing he could do was not to try to describe them. He tells that eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for those that love Him". Part 4. A New Creation Isa. 65:17, Rev. 21:1. "Our Redeemer will ever bear the marks of his crucifixion upon His wounded head, upon His side, His hands and feet, are the only traces of the cruel work that sin has wrought." Part 5. "Situation Of the Redeemed. Life in the new earth will to a large degree be similar to the life that man lived in Paradise before the entrance of sin." SDA Bible Commentary on Isa. 65:21. part 6. Fulfillment of the Covenant. Rev. 21:3 "And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men; and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God."

Sabbath School 10 o'clock a.m. Worship Service 11:15 a.m. "The Little Friendly Church" on Court Street in Appomattox, Va. wishes all a happy and prosperious New Year.

Please Remember! A cordial welcome is extended to all our visitors, come and bring friends and relatives with you, and fellowship with us. "It maybe later than we think." Each day brings us nearer our heavenly home. May we be ready when He comes in the clouds of glory to take His children Home is my daily prayer for all people.
